Application for extension of residence permit for residence as family member or relative (sponsor)

It is also possible to submit and manage this application online. Start the online application on www.ind.nl/en. Choose the button ‘Apply online’ and log on with your DigiD and an SMS notification code.

Read the explanation before you start to fill out the form.

For whom is this form intended?
You can use this form if you are the sponsor of a foreign national who has a regular residence permit with the purpose of residence ‘residence as family member or relative’. You can use this form to submit an application on behalf of the foreign national in order to extend the period of validity of this residence permit.

Why use this form?
The Immigration and Naturalisation Service (IND) sends, approximately 3 months before the validity of the current residence permit expires, a service letter to notify you about the expiration date of your residence permit. The letter states that you have the possibility to extend your residence permit online via the website. For more information check ‘Apply online’ on www.ind.nl. Can you or do you prefer not to submit the application online? You can then use this form.

You must ensure that this application is received by the IND before the residence permit expires. This is important to prevent the foreign national encounters a residence gap. A residence gap is an interruption in your residence. This has consequences for any subsequent procedures. Do not submit an application if the residence permit is still valid for more than 3 months. The IND will disregard an application which is submitted earlier than 3 months before the expiration date of the residence permit.

The IND assesses the application and decides whether the foreign national is eligible for extension of the period of validity of the residence permit. Whether and for how long the period of validity of the residence permit is extended depends on the situation. The foreign national will only be eligible for extension of the period of validity of the residence permit if:

• he/she has a valid temporary Dutch residence permit at that moment; and
• he/she wants to extend the period of validity of the residence permit with the same purpose of residence; and
• there are no changes to the situation of the foreign national that would affect the right of residence.

How do you fill out this form?
This form comprises different appendices. Which appendices you need to fill out depends on your own situation. Only submit your application once you have completed filling out this form, signed and you have gathered together all the requested documents and evidence. If your application is incomplete, the IND will be unable to assess your application properly.

Processing of personal data
The Immigration and Naturalisation Service (IND) processes personal data when it processes your application, notification, or request. This means that if needed the IND will request data from you yourself and other organisations or persons. The IND also uses and stores data and shares them with other organisations. When doing so, the IND strictly adheres to the stipulations of privacy legislation. For instance, the IND must treat data safely and with due care. The law also gives rights. At your request, you are allowed to see which data on you the IND processes. You can also get information on why the IND does so and to whom your data have been passed on. On www.ind.nl you can read how the IND processes your data and which rights you have. You can also read how to use your rights.
Would you like more information?
Then visit the IND website at www.ind.nl. You can also contact the IND by telephone via 088 043 04 30 (normal charges apply). From abroad you can call +31 88 043 04 30.

1 Declarations

1.1 Declaration of Circumstances

> Please tick the applicable situation(s). This relates to changes that may affect the right of residence. Always enclose means of evidence together with your application.

☐ Since the current residence permit was issued, there have been no changed facts or circumstances that might affect the right of residence of the foreign national; or

☐ Since the current residence permit was issued, there have been changes to the facts and circumstances that might affect the right of residence of the foreign national, namely:
  ☐ The family situation of the foreign national or of yourself has changed, namely by:
    ☐ You and the foreign national do not live on the same address
    ☐ Marriage/registered partnership
      > Enclose a copy of the marriage certificate/registration

No, the foreign national has no valid passport.
> Explain why the foreign national has no valid passport

- If the foreign national is issued with a new residence permit, then he/she will need to take his/her passport with him/her when collecting the new residence pass. Without a valid passport, the foreign national will not be issued with his/her residence document, unless he/she is exempted from the passport requirement.
- If the foreign national was exempted from the requirement of having a valid passport at the time of issue of the current permit, or is temporarily exempted from this requirement, then he/she must hand over a copy of his/her valid passport (if he/she has taken possession of his/her passport in the meantime), or enclose a declaration showing that there are no changed circumstances and that he/she still cannot receive a valid passport from the authorities.
- If the foreign national has a residence permit on grounds of residence as a foreign national who cannot leave the Netherlands through no fault of his/her own, he/she is not required to complete this declaration.

1.4 Main residence

> Please tick the applicable situation and fill in the details requested, if applicable.

- Since the commencement date of the existing residence permit, the foreign national has not been away from the Netherlands for more than 4 months continuously
- The foreign national was not in the Netherlands for a period of more than 4 months continuously. The foreign national was then in:

Country
Choose the purpose of residence

Choose the purpose of residence of the permit for which you want to extend the period of validity.

You can only extend one residence permit with this form. If you want to extend residence permits for more than one family member, then you must complete separate forms for each family member. If you choose more than one purpose of residence, then (possibly) your application will be no longer valid. If you are in doubt, then contact the IND. Do not submit your application if you are not sure whether you and the foreign national comply with the conditions. Visit the IND website at www.ind.nl for the conditions for extending the residence permit.

> Please tick the applicable situation

The foreign national has a residence permit for:

- stay for the purpose of carrying out family life in accordance with Article 8 of the ECHR (334)
  > Proceed to 3 'Means of evidence'

- stay with spouse or (registered) partner (320)
- stay with partner (322)
- stay with parent(s) (326 - 328)
- extension of family reunification (parent with a child, children aged 18 and over with a parent, other family members) (330 - 332)
- stay with a foreign national minor who holds a temporary asylum residence permit (347)
- stay with foster parent(s) (352)
- stay with adoptive parent(s) (350 - 355 - 356)
- stay with the holder of a medical residence permit (415 - 416 - 417 - 418)
  > Proceed to 4 'Biometric information (fingerprints, passport photo) and signature'

3 Means of evidence

By 2 'Choose the purpose of residence' you ticked the box stating that you want to extend the period of validity of the foreign national's residence permit for the purpose of residence of 'staying to carry out family life in accordance with Article 8 of the ECHR'. If the foreign national wants to extend the period of validity of this permit for carrying out family life with his/her minor child, then you must enclose with your application means of evidence showing in what way the foreign national carries out his/her family life with his/her minor child.

4 Biometric information (fingerprints, passport photo) and signature

The foreign national must have his fingerprints and facial image (passport photo) taken to determine his identity. The biometric information is also required to create a residence permit. For the residence permit the IND also needs a signature of the foreign national. See the appendix Fingerprints, passport photo and signature.

NB. No fingerprints are taken from children younger than 6 years of age, only a passport photo is required. You can send a passport photo of your child to the IND, using the appendix passport photo form on www.ind.nl. You can also have a passport photo taken at the IND desk. Herefor you have to make online an appointment via www.ind.nl.

I am requesting the Immigration and Naturalisation Service (IND) to extend the period of validity of the residence permit. I declare I have completed this form truthfully. I know that the personal details supplied will be processed in connection with the Aliens Act 2000 and will be passed on to authorities that need these personal details for that purpose. I will pass on any changes to the situation, which will affect the right of residence, within 4 week to the IND with the ‘Notification form for family members and relatives’. I am aware that if I do not do this, it may affect the right of residence of the foreign national or that an administrative fine might be incurred.

Processing of personal data
The Immigration and Naturalisation Service (IND) processes personal data when it processes your application, notification, or request. This means that if needed the IND will request data from you yourself and other organisations or persons. The IND also uses and stores data and shares them with other organisations. When doing so, the IND strictly adheres to the stipulations of privacy legislation. For instance, the IND must treat data safely and with due care. The law also gives rights. At your request, you are allowed to see which data on you the IND processes. You can also get information on why the IND does so and to whom your data have been passed on. On www.ind.nl you can read how the IND processes your data and which rights you have. You can also read how to use your rights.
The foreign national must have his fingerprints and facial image (passport photo) taken to determine his identity. The biometric information also needs a signature of the foreign national.

How can the foreign national submit these?
In all cases, the foreign national must bring a valid passport (this can also be a foreign national passport or a refugee passport) or ID card of the EU, EEA or Switzerland.

This can be done while still abroad, by means of the Entry and Residence procedure

- The sponsor (in the Netherlands) will have submitted the application for Regular Provisional Residence Permit for the foreign national (who is still abroad).
  - If a positive decision is given, then the foreign national can collect the Regular Provisional Residence Permit from the Dutch Embassy or Consulate in his/her country of origin or long-term residence. When collecting the Regular Provisional Residence Permit, the foreign national must take a new (and not previously used) passport photo with him/her. This passport photo must comply with the requirements which also apply for Dutch passports. The Embassy can inform the foreign national where he/she is able to have passport photos made locally, which comply with the relevant requirements. A photo that does not comply with the requirements will cause unnecessary delay.
  - The employee at the Dutch Embassy or the Consulate will take fingerprints and the foreign national will also be required to sign the document.

- The foreign national has submitted the Regular Provisional Residence Permit to the Dutch Embassy or the Consulate in the country of origin or long-term residence.
  - When submitting the application, the foreign national must take a new (and not previously used) passport photo with him/her. The employee at the Dutch Embassy or the Consulate will also take the fingerprints and the foreign national will be required to sign the document.

When abroad, application for temporary Regular Residence Permit for persons who do not require a Regular Provisional Residence Permit

- If an application is submitted in the Netherlands by a (recognised) sponsor for a foreign national who does not require a Regular Provisional Residence Permit, then the foreign national must go to an Immigration and Naturalisation Service (IND) counter immediately after arrival in the Netherlands. The Immigration and Naturalisation Service (IND) employee will make fingerprints and a passport photo and the foreign national will be required to sign the document. You have to make an online appointment via the website www.ind.nl.

Apply for a first residence permit in the Netherlands or changing the purpose of residence

- The foreign national or sponsor submits the application in writing (and sends the application by post to the Immigration and Naturalisation Service (IND)). The foreign national must go the Immigration and Naturalisation Service (IND) desk within 2 weeks after receiving a confirmation letter in order to have his/her fingerprints and passport photo taken. Please check www.ind.nl to make an online appointment. There, you will also find addresses and opening hours of the IND desks. If the application form notes that the foreign national will collect the residence permit at an expat centre, then he/she can also have a passport photograph and his/her fingerprints taken there. Please check www.ind.nl for how to make an online appointment. There, you will also find addresses and opening hours of the IND desks. The addresses and opening hours of the Expats centres can be found at www.ind.nl.
  - The foreign national must submit the application immediately at the counter. A passport photo and the fingerprints will be taken at the counter. The foreign national will also be required to sign the document. Submitting an application to an Immigration and Naturalisation Service (IND) counter is by appointment only. Information about making appointments can be found on the website www.ind.nl.

Application for extension of a residence permit, a permanent residence permit or an application for renewal or replacement of a residence document

- The foreign national or sponsor submits the application in writing (and sends the application by post to the Immigration and Naturalisation Service (IND)). The foreign national must go the Immigration and Naturalisation Service (IND) desk within 2 weeks after receiving a confirmation letter in order to have his/her fingerprints and passport photo taken. You will have to make an online appointment first. The addresses and opening hours of the Immigration and Naturalisation Service (IND) counters can be found on the website www.ind.nl.

N.B. From 1 March 2014, if the foreign national (e.g. in the context of a previous application) has had biometric features (10 fingerprints and a passport photo) taken, the foreign national does not need to provide these details (at an IND desk) again. This does not apply if the foreign national has reached the age of 6, 12 or 18 in the intervening period. The IND could invite the foreign national for gaining biometric details again, if the previously used passport photo is an insufficient similarity of the foreign national or if the photo and/or fingerprints taken previously are of an insufficiently high quality.
Processing of personal data

The Immigration and Naturalisation Service (IND) processes personal data when it processes your application, notification, or request. This means that if needed the IND will request data from you yourself and other organisations or persons. The IND also uses and stores data and shares them with other organisations. When doing so, the IND strictly adheres to the stipulations of privacy legislation. For instance, the IND must treat data safely and with due care. The law also gives rights. At your request, you are allowed to see which data on you the IND processes. You can also get information on why the IND does so and to whom your data have been passed on. On www.ind.nl you can read how the IND processes your data and which rights you have. You can also read how to use your rights.
One copy must be completed and signed for each employer. The application form states when and of which person(s) you must enclose the employer’s declaration with your application.

Please note! Not completing this employer’s declaration truthfully may be considered a crime (such as forgery) and may lead to filing a police report.

Please note! The IND may check the correctness of your enclosed wage, work and benefit details with another government agency (for example the Netherlands Employees Insurance Agency or the Tax and Customs Administration).

Explaination  A company’s profits for the closed financial year or the current financial year are calculated by deducting the total operating expenses from the total operating income. The income and the expenses must be calculated according to generally accepted commercial standards. With respect to this, the following is noted. If there is no closed financial year, the calculation of the monthly profits must be based on permanence. This means that both the operating income and the operating expenses must be attributable to the relevant period. If the company has the form of a private partnership, general partnership or limited partnership, the profits will then be divided among the partners or associates.

This compilation report is part of the declaration on income of self-employed person. Our client has this declaration on income of self-employed person filled in and signed for the purpose of an application procedure at the IND. This report is compiled by us on behalf of the IND, with the aim of assessing whether the resource requirement has been satisfied for compliance with the applicable standard. As a result, the statement may not be suitable for another purpose. The statement is intended solely for our client and the IND and should not be distributed to or used by other parties.

This compilation report, in accordance with the applicable regulations, refers to the information under section 3 Income from business activities. This information is compiled by us based on the information provided by our client.

This compilation engagement has been performed by us in accordance with Dutch law, including the Dutch Standard 4410H, ‘Compilation engagements’, which is applicable to accountants. The standard requires us to assist the client in the preparation and presentation of section 3 Income from business activities of the declaration on income of self-employed person. To this end we have applied our professional expertise in accounting and financial reporting.

In a compilation engagement, the client is responsible for providing us with all relevant information and the client is also responsible for ensuring the information is correct. Therefore, we have conducted our work, in accordance with the applicable regulations, on the assumption that the client has fulfilled his responsibility.

To conclude our work, we have read section 3 of the declaration to consider whether the statement as presented correspond with our understanding of the client. We have not performed any audit or review procedures which would enable us to express an opinion or a conclusion on section 3 of the declaration.

During this engagement we have complied with the relevant ethical requirements prescribed by the ‘Verordening Gedrags- en Beroepsregels Accountants’ (VGBA, Dutch Code of Ethics). You and other users of this statement may therefore assume that we have conducted the engagement in a professional, competent and objective manner and with due care and integrity and that we will treat all information provided to us as confidential.

Processing of personal data

The Immigration and Naturalisation Service (IND) processes personal data when it processes your application, notification, or request. This means that if needed the IND will request data from you yourself and other organisations or persons. The IND also uses and stores data and shares them with other organisations. When doing so, the IND strictly adheres to the stipulations of privacy legislation. For instance, the IND must treat data safely and with due care. The law also gives rights. At your request, you are allowed to see which data on you the IND processes. You can also get information on why the IND does so and to whom your data have been passed on. On www.ind.nl you can read how the IND processes your data and which rights you have. You can also read how to use your rights.
Appendix

Submitting and paying for the application for an extension

How do you pay?
Applying for an extension of the validity of a residence permit is not free of charge. The costs depend on the purpose of the residence applied by you. After the IND has received your application, you will receive a letter stating the amount and the manner in which you have to pay. This form contains no information about the costs or any exemption from having to pay fees. Please visit www.ind.nl if you want to know the costs beforehand. If the assessment of your application shows that you do not qualify for the residence permit applied for, you will not receive a refund.

What happens with your application?
If you have submitted your application for an extension to the IND and paid the related costs, the IND will assess your application. If your application is incomplete, the IND will be unable to properly assess your application. If you fail to make a payment or timely payment or submit an incomplete application, the handling of your application will be delayed. You will be informed in writing once your application has been handled. If your application is granted, you will also receive a letter with information about the follow-up procedure.

Providing correct information
Providing incorrect information or withholding relevant information may lead to withdrawal of the permit. If punishable offences are observed, the IND reports this to the police.

V-number
A V-number is a unique number, which is used for identification of a foreign national by the IND and cooperating organisations (such as the Aliens Police). The number is listed in the correspondence which the foreign national or sponsor receives from the IND and other organisations and is also printed on the residence document itself.
