

Application for a 'Regular Provisional Residence Permit - persons making a journey in connection with family reunification with an asylum seeker' (647)

Read the explanation before you start to fill out the form.

For whom is this form intended?

You have an asylum residence permit and you want to bring a family member from abroad to the Netherlands. With this form you can apply for a Regular Provisional Residence Permit (hereinafter MVV) for your family member. The IND calls this family reunification and uses the term 'journey in connection with family reunification' for this application. This application is free of charge. An MVV is an entry visa with which your family member can travel to the Netherlands. Once your family member is in the Netherlands, he or she can obtain a derived asylum residence permit. This means that the stay of your family member depends on your asylum residence permit.

You can use this form for the following family members:

- your husband/wife;
- your partner;
- your child or foster child; and/or
- your parent (if you are unaccompanied and were under the age of 18 when you submitted your asylum application).

You are called a 'sponsor' in this form. Your family member is called a 'foreign national'.

When can you use this form?

After you have obtained your asylum residence permit, you will have three months' time to apply for an MVV for persons making a journey in connection with family reunion with an asylum seeker for your family member. You do so with this form.

Do you not have an asylum residence permit, or has the period for a journey in connection with family reunion expired? Then use the application form 'Application for the purpose of residence of 'family members and relatives' (sponsor)' if you want to bring a family member to the Netherlands. This application is not free of charge.

How do you fill in this form?

The application comprises:

- The application form. Do you want to make an application for more family members? Then use a separate application form for each family member.
- Appendices. This form contains links to appendices that you must fill in and enclose with the application form. Which appendices you need to fill in and enclose depends on your situation, and you will read this further on in the application form.

How do you submit the application?

How do you submit the application?

Please note! Only send your application once you have filled in this form and the requested appendices completely. Do not forget to place a signature on the application form. You must also gather all means of evidence before you make the application.

Are you unable to gather all means of evidence together in time? Or do you not have contact with your family member at this time? Then only make an application to secure the period for the journey in connection with family reunion. Indicate this under section 1 of the application form. You can make a new application once you have gathered the evidence together or if you have contact again with your family member. Please note! Take account of the fact that conditions may change in the meantime. It is possible that other conditions will apply to you when you make a new application.

Send the complete application with appendices and documents to the IND by (registered) post.

- Put everything in one envelope.
- Stick enough stamps on the envelope.
- Do not send original documents.
- Do not use staples or paper clips.
- Do not send USB sticks, CDs, DVDs. All information must be on paper.

Please send the complete application to:

Immigratie- en Naturalisatiedienst
Postbus 16

What happens to your application?

After the IND has received your application, the IND will assess your application. If the IND needs more information, you will receive a letter about this. If the IND can decide immediately, you will also receive a letter.

Processing of personal data

The Immigration and Naturalisation Service (IND) processes personal data when it processes your application, notification, or request. This means that if needed the IND will request data from you yourself and other organisations or persons. The IND also uses and stores data and shares them with other organisations. When doing so, the IND strictly adheres to the stipulations of privacy legislation. For instance, the IND must treat data safely and with due care. The law also gives rights. At your request, you are allowed to see which data on you the IND processes. You can also get information on why the IND does so and to whom your data have been passed on. On www.ind.nl you can read how the IND processes your data and which rights you have. You can also read how to use your rights.

Would you like more information?

Then visit the IND website at www.ind.nl. You can also contact the IND by telephone via 088 043 04 30 (normal charges apply). From abroad you can call +31 88 043 04 30.

1 Sponsor

Only the sponsor can use this form. The sponsor must submit the application within 3 months after having obtained the asylum residence permit. Does your family member want to apply for an MVV abroad? Your family member must then go to the diplomatic representation of the Netherlands in that country.

- 1.1 Do you apply for the mvv within 3 months after receiving the residence permit? ☐ Yes ☐ No

- 1.2 If not, explain the reason for this below.

- 1.3 Are you only applying to stay within the family reunification period*? ☐ I only apply for the mvv to stay within the family reunification period of 3 months. The IND will not look at the contents of the application and closes it. I will apply for an mvv again as soon as I can submit a complete application.
- Only tick the box if this applies to your situation. If this does not apply to your situation, leave the box blank.*
- > Only complete point 2, 3, 6, 7, 8, 9.1, 9.2 and 9.3 on the application form*

*The family reunification period means that you have to apply for the mvv within 3 months after receiving the residence permit. For example, do you not know where your family members are at this moment? Then you can submit the application in advance to stay within the family reunification period.

6 Information on documents and appendices

For your application, you must prove the identity of your family member and the family relationship.

Identity

What must you send?

Send a copy of the passport of your family member. Does your family member not have a passport? Then send a copy of another proof of identity. A proof of identity is a document from the government of the country of origin. This is the country of which your family member has the nationality. A proof of identity contains personal data and a passport photo. Does your family member not have a passport or other proof of identity? Then send as many documents as possible showing the identity of your family member.

How do you send the documents?

If there is a passport or proof of identity, you only copy the pages with:

- the personal details; and
- term of validity; and
- travel stamps; and
- the family member's signature.

If there are other documents, you copy all pages.

Family relationship

What must you send?

Send copies of original documents that prove the family relationship.

Family relationship

What must you send?

Send copies of original documents that prove the family relationship.

How do you send the documents?

Copy all pages of the document. Once the IND has received your application, you will receive a confirmation of receipt. An appendix is enclosed with this confirmation that you must use to send the original documents. It is therefore important for these documents already to be available in the Netherlands. You do not need to resend the documents that were already examined during the asylum procedure.

Translation of documents

All documents must be written in Dutch, English, German or French. Are the documents written in a different language? Then a sworn translator must translate these documents. This is a translator who has been sworn in by a court in the Netherlands. This translator is then listed for this language in the register of sworn translators and interpreters (Rbtv). You can find the Rbtv via www.bureauwbtv.nl. You must also send this original translation.

Absence of documents

Identity

Do you not have any documents to prove the identity? Then explain why not in a separate letter. Ensure that the explanation is comprehensive and deals personally with your family member. A mere explanation of the situation in the country of origin is not sufficient. Please explain:

- why your family member has never had documents; or
- why your family member did have documents once, but no longer has them now.
- how your family member has managed to survive the day-to-day life in the country of origin without documents.

Family relationship

Do you not have any documents to prove the family relationship? Then explain why not in a separate letter. Ensure that the explanation is comprehensive and deals personally with your family member. A mere explanation of the situation in the country of origin is not sufficient. Please explain:

- why your family member has never had documents; or
- why your family member did have documents once, but no longer has them now.
- how your family member has managed to survive in the day-to-day life in the country of origin without documents.

Value documents

When assessing the application, the IND will look at all the documents you send. The IND attaches more value to government documents. It is also important that there is sufficient personal data on it. Such as (sur)names of you and your family member and dates of birth. A document also has more value if it contains a photo. The IND attaches less value to documents that the government has not issued. This also applies to documents with little personal data or documents without a photo.

Assessment of identity and family relationship

The IND assesses whether you have made the identity of your family member and the family ties plausible. For this, the IND assesses all documents and statements together. Does the IND think that you have made the identity and family ties plausible? Then the IND will check whether you are given the benefit of the doubt. This means that the IND will further investigate whether your application has been assessed positively. An investigation can be an interview or DNA test.

Appendices

It is also important for you to fill in the appendices completely. Has the IND asked for an explanation? Ensure that you write down a comprehensive and personal explanation. A short explanation is not sufficient for the IND.

7 Place of collection of regular provisional residence permit (mvv) (if the regular provisional residence permit is granted)

State below where your family member wants to pick up the MVV. This can be done at a Netherlands embassy or consulate in the country of origin or in the country where your family member resides. Does your family member reside in a European country? You must then send a copy of the residence document of your family member.

Is there no Netherlands embassy or consulate in the country where your family member resides? Your family member can then pick up the MVV in a neighbouring country where there is one.

Always fill in these details. Do you not yet know where your family member wants to pick up the MVV. Then fill in the details of the Netherlands embassy or consulate where you think your family member is going to pick up the MVV. You can always change this later.

The Immigration and Naturalisation Service (IND) processes personal data when it processes your application, notification, or request. This means that if needed the IND will request data from you yourself and other organisations or persons. The IND also uses and stores data and shares them with other organisations. When doing so, the IND strictly adheres to the stipulations of privacy legislation. For instance, the IND must treat data safely and with due care. The law also gives rights. ## Appendix Declaration by sponsor (family and relatives)

Explanation

If you apply for residence for a family member to stay with you in the Netherlands, you are the sponsor. This comes with responsibilities. As a sponsor, you must ensure that your family member meets the conditions for a residence permit. Not only when applying for a residence permit, but also afterwards. Is your family member no longer entitled to reside in the Netherlands? Then you must ensure that your family member leaves the Netherlands.

Please note! You only complete this statement for your own family members. Are you applying for a child that is not your own child, but that of your spouse/partner? In that case, your spouse/partner must complete this statement for the child.

Report changes

Are there any changes in your situation, which could have any effect on the residence permit? If so, you are obliged to report these changes to the IND within 4 weeks. The IND refers to this as the obligation to provide information. Please use the 'Notification form for family members and relatives', which you can download from www.ind.nl. The form lists the changes you need to report.

Retain records

You are obliged to collect and store any relevant information about your family member. You can find the data you are obliged to store in the Aliens Regulations. You must store this documentary evidence for 5 years after you are no longer the sponsor of the foreign national. The IND refers to this as the duty to keep and retain records. The IND can request data from you at any time. In this way the IND checks whether you comply with this obligation.

Appendix Application for DNA test in case of family reunification

You applied for family reunification for a relative or family member. With this application, you must provide proof of a family relationship. This is possible with a DNA test. Here, you can read how a DNA test works.

DNA

Each person has unique characteristics. These characteristics have been embedded in our DNA. This DNA can be found in all our body cells. Everyone passes part of these unique characteristics on to his or her children. So father, mother and children partly have the same DNA. A DNA test compares the DNA of your family members. The result of the DNA test proves whether or not you are related to each other. For that reason, DNA testing only provides certainty about the biological parent-child relationship. In the case of foster or adopted children, DNA testing is therefore pointless.

DNA test

A mouth swab sample is taken from you, your spouse, and child(ren) for the DNA test. Your family members must make an appointment to have their DNA sample collected at the Dutch embassy. The IND will then invite you to have your DNA taken at the DNA desk. You cannot make an appointment for this yourself. You will receive a letter with information about your appointment. After this appointment, researchers will compare the DNA in the saliva. The results show whether there is a biological relationship between the child(ren) and you (and/or your spouse).

DNA test step by step

The DNA test is not painful and not injurious to one's health.

1. The identity is established.
2. A mouth swab is taken from the inside of your cheek. This is done by using a special swab.
3. All the DNA material is analysed by the Netherlands Forensic Institute (NFI).
4. The NFI sends the result of the DNA test to the IND.

Possible results

DNA testing can establish (with certainty) that

- you are the father or mother of a child.
- you are not the father or mother of a child.

Has the DNA of both parents been analysed? Then one of them may turn out not to be the child's biological parent.

Test results

The IND will take account of the DNA test results in its decision on your application for family reunification. After six months, the NFI destroys the DNA material taken and the (personal) data relating to it. These data will not be used for other purposes.

Countercheck

If the DNA test result is negative, you can have a counter-test done by another laboratory. This is called a countercheck. Only approved laboratories may carry out DNA relationship tests. The Dutch Accreditation Council determines whether a laboratory will be approved. You can use the search function on the website of the Dutch Accreditation Council (www.rva.nl/search) to check whether a laboratory has been approved or not. You must pay the costs of the countercheck.

More information

Do you still have any questions after reading this information? Then please contact the IND or the Dutch embassy or consulate in the country where you live. Check www.ind.nl for the contact details of the IND. Keep the V-number of your sponsor at hand. Do you have a complaint about the way in which the IND treated you? Then you can use the complaints form at www.ind.nl.
